NEW GOODS! NEW GOODS!

AT HOME AGAIN!!

WITH A HOUSE RAMMED AND PACKED FULL OF

NEW FALL AND WINTER GOODS,

FOR

COME TO

For Ladies' Goods! For Gentlemen's Goods! For Misses' Goods! For Boys' Goods! Ditto for Children!

MY STOCK IS LARGE AND VERY COMplete. Allow me to say that you see some very strange advertisements. Some say they bought goods before the rise—some after the decline—some just in time—some in luck again—some buy goods cheaper than anybody else—some selling goods at unprecedentedly low prices—some controlling the trade &c., &c., and all such stuff. What a lucky set of individuals!

Now just let ME tell you, that there is more humbug than poetry in all this. Don't every man, woman and child know that it is humbug—large enough to be seen even with one eye shut? So let them talk, puff and blow, but stop. LOOK OUT! HANDS OFF! and show your good judgment by to buy your goods. I intend to run through this campaign with my motto, to give each and every individual value received for their support!

A fine opportunity for the ladies to exercise their inalienable rights, as well as the gentlemen. Don't stop until you COME TO CREECH'S. You will find me at E. Smith's corner, attending to my business, always ready to give you the worth of your money.

VEGETABLE PILE OINTMENT.

TO THE PUBLIC.

FOR 25 YEARS I was sorely afflicted with the PILES. After trying every remedy I could hear of and failing to receive any benefit, in 1867, I discovered a remedy, purely vegetable, which effected an entire cure, and I have had no return of it.

Anxious to relieve the afflicted and to promote my own benefit, I made public my discovery and had the gratification to know that my remedy cured a large number of persons. My ointment was advertised in the public prints and I met with great success, until the war came on.

By the advice of friends, I have determined again to manufacture the OINTMENT and offer it for sale. Any number of certificates of its value could be obtained if necessary.

Price of box $1, and postage (fifteen cents.) As soon as I can make arrangements, I will put it in the hands of the druggists of the State.

MR JOSEPH W. HOLDEN, SPEAKER OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Upon the authority of reliable persons, who heard Mr. J. W. Holden's speech at the late negro Mass Meeting, the Sentinel, of the 18th. instant, stated:

"A reliable young man, who was standing near, informs us that as he (Jos. W. Holden) advanced in his violent remarks, he told the blacks, 'I do not address you as Joseph W. Holden, but in the name and spirit of an inspired prophet. Go to the polls, armed with guns, pistols and bludgeons, and vote.' He indulged in various threats and imprecations, and implored the 'God of turpentine to shower down torches or flames upon the dwellings of the rebels."

The Agent of the Associated Press in this city telegraphed the substance of the above, upon the same authority. The parties, who communicated it, would not hesitate to make affidavit of its correctness, to the number of five or six persons.

Our Press telegram from Washington, of the 19th. inst., said:

"Jos. W. Holden, son of the Governor of North Carolina, in a dispatch to the Congressional Republican Committee, denies that he invoked the 'God of turpentine' in a recent Radical meeting in North Carolina."

The N. C. Standard, of Saturday last, contains the following Card of Mr. Jos. W. Holden:

"In justice to myself, I will state the line of argument used by me at Burke Square on Wednesday last, and which has been misrepresented in the Sentinel of Friday.

I said that, standing upon that square, where I had passed many happy school-day hours, that I did not speak to the audience as "Jo. Holden" merely, nor as a prophet or the son of a prophet, but only as a Republican, &c.

Further on, in my remarks, I referred to intimidation. I argued that if weapons—the bullet, the knife, the club, or the bludgeon,—were to be used by rebels to prevent our voting, that, in the last resort, we would be forced to defend our rights. I feared and deplored this catastrophe.

As to the turpentine torch, I said that Gov. Brownlow had long ago spoken the truth. That another war in favor of slavery or rebellion would sweep the dwelling houses of this land with a shower of sparks from heaven. I deplored and abhorred any measures tending to this direful result.

This was the gist of my speech. I used none of the incoherent expressions attributed to me in the Sentinel. I was hoarse from frequent and long continued speaking in various parts of the State, and only spoke upon the stress and excitement of the moment.

The next time I make a speech, if reported at all, I hope the Sentinel will secure a good reporter, and not rely upon hear-say or rumor.

I have written this card in the exercise of good temper, though I do feel that I have reason to complain of the manner in which the charges were put forth against me."

We publish the above card for two reasons. First, To give the writer the benefit of his disclaimer. Secondly, To make the following remarks:

We believe the testimony of the persons upon whose authority we made the statement, for the following reasons:

First, because the persons who testify that he made the remarks are reliable and would not misrepresent him. Secondly, the remarks attributed to Mr. Holden correspond with the reports of his speeches made at other times and places, under the same circumstances. His violence in his speeches on the military bill, &c., in the Legislature, was a subject of general remark, and the reports we have heard of his speeches at other times correspond with this.

Thirdly, this same spirit he has shown, at various times, for the last two years and more, when prompted by the same circumstances as when he made this speech. At other times and under other circumstances, his course has been entirely different.

The following extract from an editorial article was written by him for the Standard, while he and Col. Cannon were the editors. It has been in our possession for more than two years. We have proof that he wrote it. It was put in type and revised for the press, and he insisted upon its publication, but it was suppressed and prevented from being published by his father or some other friend. The following is the extract, verbatim et literatim:

"More treason exists in North Carolina to day than six months ago. Who are the traitors? Jo. Turner, Wm. A Graham, R. Y. McAden, Jno. T. Wooten, Wm. E. Pell, and the editors of miserable little local sheets. We, the Junior, are responsible for what we say. The spirit of D. K. McRae still lives, and by the eternal power it must be scourged into submission.

We hate, with the hate of hell, the political hypocrites who have been before the people. Jo. Turner is as mean a man, as low an American as the broad boundaries of the counties West. He has been agged on by others. By all that is good let him be arrested and let this matter be ferrited to the bottom. Let the whole thing be exposed. Oh, for one hour as Provisional Governor. These scoundrels should be flayed alive.

Gov. Holden has been too lenient. As a father we have known him as such. But now may he put into letters of blood the damnable history of these mean, despicable traitors. For God's sake, let us have utter harmony or the peace of utter subjugation. The Union men of North Carolina are the true lords of the soil, let them rule or let them shed oceans of blood. To arms! Stand by the Governor. Implore him to kill, burn and destroy every secessionist that now lives. Amen."

The person who could write the above, would need but little additional stimulus to make the speech attributed to him.

Fourthly, Because, for the course of remark which he says he made, there was not a shadow of reason. He says, in his card, "I argued that if weapons, the bullet, the knife, the club or the bludgeon, were to be used," &c., &c. Such an idea never had any existence or foundation except in the distempered brains of Radicals. The intimation that Conservatives or "rebels" ever thought of using threats or intimidation with weapons, towards any human being, black or white, is false and without foundation. We defy any one to give a single instance of the kind. The "rebels" are anxious that every man shall be allowed to vote as he pleases. No Democrat or Conservative ever thought of forcing or threatening the negroes, or any one else, to vote with them. If the negroes will not listen to reason or persuasion, let them vote as they please. This whole bluster is designed by Radicals to cover up their own purposes to threaten and to raise an armed force to intimidate voters and keep them from the polls. Democrats and Conservatives scorn to use unfair means in the election. The blacks have now the liberty of voting, and no Conservative would prevent it if he could, by foul means.

His argument, borrowed from Brownlow, was not justified by any thing the Conservatives and Democrats have said or done. The Radical talk about their making war or putting the blacks back into slavery are lies from the whole cloth. No Democrat or Conservative desires any thing but peace, if the Radicals will let us live in peace. It is the Radicals and the Radicals alone who threaten war. This they are doing constantly. Almost every negro in the South is talking about making war if Seymour and Blair are elected!

TEN MILLIONS OF RADICAL DEBT ALREADY!—SEVENTY-FIVE THOUSAND NEGRO VOTES RULE!!

Within the last six months, under the Radical negro rule, with a public debt of about eighteen millions of dollars, and the country desolated and impoverished by the war, the public debt has been increased ten millions of dollars! Who made this enormously increased debt? Not the tax payers; they did not want it; they have not assented to it; but they must pay it, or incur the odium of repudiation!

Who, then, made this debt? Seventy-five thousand negro voters made it! They elected reckless, irresponsible, worthless men to office and they created it! The negroes pay no taxes; most of these men they elect to office pay, comparatively, no taxes, and they can afford to make any amount of appropriations and spend and waste any amount of money. THE OFFICE HOLDERS are INDEPENDENT of the TAX PAYING PEOPLE; they are elected by the irresponsible NON-TAX PAYING NEGRO VOTE! The plain English of it is this: THERE IS NO PROTECTION for property or the tax payers!!

Ten millions OF DEBT IN LESS THAN SIX MONTHS! MADE BY 75,000 NEGRO votes! The tax payers must pay it? Well may negroes and wandering carpet baggers revel in the Capitol and lounge about public places! The people pay the taxes; they appropriate, waste and spend the money!! How long can a government, a people and society last, when there is no protection for property or industry, and when the worthless and idle, lazy and vicious rule!

Ten millions of public debt made in less than six months by 75,000 negro voters, who pay almost no taxes at all!! Let the people think of this. Must not something be done? Is not some protection necessary?—RADICALISM DID THIS! No relief can be had at the hands of the Radicals. Let the people think and act as men, if they would save themselves!

THE RADICAL RIOT IN NEW ORLEANS.

The New Orleans disturbance, of which the Telegraph gave us an account, on yesterday, affords another practical and bloody illustration of the purpose of the Radicals to bring on riot and conflict, with a view to influencing the elections. A solitary man on the side walk, when the rear of a Radical procession is passing, hurrahs for Seymour and Blair, and he is at once set upon by hundreds of negroes, compelled to fly for his life, the building in which he takes refuge is well-nigh demolished, when the mob, inflamed with passion, proceed to apply the torch to several other houses in the vicinity. This was but carrying out the threat of the negro Senator, on the floor of the New Orleans Legislature, to which allusion has, heretofore, been made.

It will be remembered, by every person who was in attendance upon the Democratic and Conservative State Convention, which assembled in Raleigh, on the 13th of August, that while the Torch light procession was passing through the streets, the sidewalks along its entire route were thronged with negroes shouting for Grant and Colfax. Not one of them was molested.

The contrast shows which side the forbearance is on.

Grand Mass Meeting at Haugum's Store!

Granville, Person and Orange in Council!

GRAND RALLY FOR THE CONSTITUTION AND THE COUNTRY!

Long notice and great preparation had been made for this meeting. The stand was wreathed with flowers and evergreens, and decorated with flags. At an early hour, under a bright sun, the multitude began to pour in,—now from Granville, then from Person, and again from Orange. At 11 o'clock, came Col. Webb, with the Seymour and Blair Club of Hillsboro'. They came in wagons, and buggies, horse back, "foot back," with banners flying. Tom Green, and other colored members of the Club, were along.

The speakers were Hon. Sion H. Rogers, Hon. Josiah Turner, Jr., Henry K. Nash, P. N. Strudwick, John R. Handcock, Tom Green, Cato Blunt and John Lutterloh.—The three last named are colored men.

Mr. Nash led off in the discussion in a short, eloquent and pointed speech. Mr. Nash has no superior as a popular orator.—It is said of him that he makes a political speech, but when he does, it is sure to count.

After discussing Radical men and measures in a way that pleased and convinced all, Mr. Nash concluded by introducing to the people their candidate, Hon. Sion H. Rogers, who was no stranger to the old people of Flat River, for they had voted for and elected him to Congress in the better days of the Republic.

Mr. Rogers came forward, instructed and delighted his old constituents with one of the best and ablest speeches of his life. He did not like to speak of a competitor to his back, but he was forced to do it. The carpet bagger, Deweese, will not face the white men of his District, whom he has basely slandered, while he pretended to represent them in Congress. He read from Deweese's speech in Congress, saying it was necessary, in the South, to join the Democratic or Conservative party, that one might rob and murder. This vast assembly, all Flat River, belong to that party. When did they rob, when did they murder? He lied when he said it, and the coward is now afraid to face you. He fights you among your late slaves, and falsehood and slander are his weapons.

He read from the Standard the article on "Retaliation," proposing to build negro cities and feed negroes in idleness, by a tax on land.

He then read from the address put forward by the Radical members of the Legislature, suggesting that the negro may kill stock and cattle, and even burn the house of the land-holder. Notwithstanding the address was said to be the joint production of Judge Reade and John Pool, it contained sentiments which every good man must look upon with detestation and abhorrence.

Mr. Rogers touched all the topics upon which the people are enquiring and seeking information. Only two men in Wake County, he said, had license to make brandy. No man in Orange could make brandy, because no one had been found willing and able to pay $400 for a privilege, which every man once had without paying for it. But we must not complain at a $400 dollar tax, to make a gallon of brandy,—for that was as wise, just and reasonable as many of their acts, and, besides, complaint of it would be construed into disloyalty, and an attack on "Union men!"

Mr. Turner followed Mr. Rogers. He could always speak with pleasure and confidence to the people of Flat River. Before, during and since the war, there had been entire concurrence and unanimity between himself and the people of Flat River upon all political questions, whether they related to peace or war.

A wise and sagacious statesman once said that "more depended upon the men who administered a government than upon the form of government. A good government administered by bad men would be a curse, rather than a blessing." Our government is in the hands of bad men. In fact, the government was "rotten before it got ripe." It was rotten in every branch,—Executive, Legislative and Judicial. How could it be otherwise? Who were elected to office at the late election, when, under the sword, the people of North Carolina voted for a Constitution, that not one in fifty had ever seen or read? At the same time, some forty men were voted for and elected to fill high places under the new Constitution. They are all loyal, too, yet no man can think of their loyalty without laughter. Four signers of the ordinance of Secession,—Holden, Dick, Thomas and Starbuck; one Confederate Senator, Judge Reade; one Confederate Captain, Judge Settle; Judge Redman, a Confederate Quartermaster and Military Judge, who shot, or ordered to be shot, more Union men than Chief Justice Pearson ever shot squirrels. Three murderers were on the ticket, and all elected to fill high and important offices. Two of them unconvicted, because untried. One of them a tried and convicted murderer. A Judge was elected, who had been presented by the Grand Jury of the Federal Court for perjury. A Constable has been known to seize upon a scallawag Judge on the street and start with him to prison for drunkenness and exhibiting himself in a semi nude condition.

The Chief Justice has written a letter which does gross violence to the truth of history, and is full of hypocrisy, treachery and deceit. He has not yet dried his tears over the loss of his slaves. In his letter he says we might have obtained gradual emancipation at the Hampton Roads Conference, with Lincoln and Seward. The proclamation and declarations of Lincoln show just the reverse of what the Judge asserts to be true. His letter is addressed to Conservatives and he writes himself down as one, when it is well known he had gone over to Holden weeks and months before he wrote his letter. When every Conservative is warmly engaged in a heroic contest for civil liberty, the Chief Justice proposes that you shall ground your arms and surrender without further struggle. One hundred and forty thousand white men to surrender to seventy thousand negroes, led by Holden, Dick, Rodman, Settle and Cantwell, who are known to have constituted the head and front of the old accesh of the State!

The Chief Justice and his associates should imitate Charles Fearne Fearne took to the law late in life, and, after he had written books and acquired fame as a Chemist, he determined to take up the study of the law. He accordingly burnt all his books that did not treat of the law, and cried over the ashes, and from that day would study nothing but law. The Chief Justice and the Court have been turned out of their old Court room in the Capitol.—Now if they will burn their law library, and take to the study of the Standard, which they can find on file in the State Library, and keep up their political consultations with Holden, if they do not acquire the fame in politics which Fearne did in law, they, at least, may hope to rival Holden in political fame and success.

Judge Reade (said Mr. T.) excluded your representative, Dr. Allison, from his seat in the Legislature. Judge Reade was called upon to swear in the members of the Legislature. His duty was to swear in all, who presented Gen. Canby's certificate. After consultation and agreement with certain persons of his political party, he resolved not to swear in all who presented Gen. Canby's certificate, but to exclude those members who were banned by the Howard amendment. Thus Judge Reade, making himself the Judge of the election and qualifications of members of the Legislature, excluded one of your members, after consultation with corrupt politicians. Dr. Allison, of Orange, and Mr. Barnett, of Person, were elected under the same Constitution and laws. They presented certificates of election from the same source. How could Judge Reade admit Barnett to his seat and exclude Dr. Allison? Yet he did so. Lord Bacon was the great and learned man of his age. He had more wisdom and learning than all of our Judges. When he went upon the bench, he had character for integrity. He had more money than all of our Judges. He was special in decrying the sin of bribery, and, while he was so doing, he was actually bribed. He corruptly took money for his Judicial opinions and decisions. He was convicted of the crime, deposed from his judgment seat and for ever disgraced. Our Judges have not yet been bribed. There is more temptation before them than was before Lord Bacon.—No one will deny but the Judiciary of North Carolina has been prostituted to partizan purposes. Shame upon the Judges who have thus degraded the bench!—Shame upon the Bar who sit by in silence and make no remonstrance against this Judicial degradation!

POLICE OR DETAILED MILITIA.

This bill was of French origin. The French people had to hang and shoot their lawfully organized police, for plundering and murdering the people. He hoped Holden's police, or detailed militia, so called, would behave better than their French prototypes, and neither merit or receive their fate.

The 22nd. Section of the bill says:

"The detailed militia shall not be used for any other purpose than to execute the laws."

What fools our English cousins across the war will take us for, when they read this bill!

When the learned Judge Hale was Chief Justice of England, a mob assembled to tear down a house. The Judge was asked to send a constable with soldiers, who had been ordered to keep the peace and disperse the mob. "Suppose," said the Judge, "the people will not disperse at the bidding of the soldiers." "Then," said the officer, "we have only to fire upon them." "Now," said the Judge, "I will send no constable with soldiers, and if any citizen is killed, I will see that every soldier engaged in it is hung." "The laws of this kingdom are not to be executed by the sword. The civil law is strong enough for its own execution."

If Judges Pearson and Reade had said to their political teacher, Holden, down with your bayonets and detailed militia, the laws of North Carolina shall not be executed with the sword, it would have reflected more credit on the bench than that letter, or that 4th, of July speech, to 5,000 grinning, scratching negroes.

Mr. Turner said that he had dismissed a freedman from his employment, in contempt of the law against intimidating voters, and those who passed it. He dismissed him for belonging to a secret political society. He was ready and waiting for the sentence of the law. He wanted Winstead and Lassiter to come and execute their law upon him.

Mr. Strudwick next responded to loud calls made for him, by saying he appeared only to acknowledge the compliment implied in the call. He spoke in handsome style of our candidates, and in a manner calculated to recommend them to the people.

John R. Handcock was loudly called for. He was no candidate for office. He was too proud for that. He was a brick layer and plasterer. The best place for him was where there was most brick to lay and most mortar to mix. The creature who calls himself Governor had offered him the place of Mayor of Hillsboro'. He then read a letter from Holden, saying that he (Handcock) had been recommended, by the Republicans of Hillsboro', for Mayor, and tendering him the place. Mr. H. said he could not so debase himself. Holden had sought out all low characters for office. No man could take office under Holden without disgrace. Holden was wanting in honesty and truth; he had slandered every prominent public man in the State. You all know Mr. Sherard Garrard. He is a man of truth. He tells it, and will swear to it, that before Holden left Orange, years ago, when he was fishing with him in Little River, Holden stole his fish hook. Now, ladies and gentlemen, do you think I would hold office under a man who would steal a fish hook?

Tom Green, freedman, was called. Tom said he would be glad to speak to the men of his color, and give them his advice. He and they were raised among the white men of the South. He now looked upon them as his best friends, and the best friends of the black men. The white people of the South had met us more than half way. They had voted to free us; they had shown confidence in us; they had given us employment.—When sick, they must attend us; when in want, they must relieve us. Now, how have we met them? By showing a want of confidence in them, by refusing and swearing we will not vote for them. We have preferred strangers and carpet baggers and incompetent men to the best men of the State. No man can long confide in one, who has no confidence in him. The white men, who join your Leagues, can't help you; they are too poor to help and too ignorant to advise you. Ignorant white men can't lead and advise ignorant black men; with such leaders both will tumble in the ditch. He was for Seymour and Blair and harmony, and good will among the blacks and whites. Tom concluded, amidst the cheers and shouts of the people, by introducing

Cato Blunt, the colored orator from Fayetteville. Cato dealt heavy blows to carpet-baggers and ignorant white men of the League, who were endeavoring to produce bad blood among the blacks and whites. He advised the black man to quit the Leagues; there was no good in them. Where, he asked, is your 40 acres of land? Where is your mule, promised when you joined the League?

John Lutterloh, (colored man,) from Fayetteville, followed Cato. John has a good, clear voice. He gave the black people most wholesome advice. He gave them his experience with carpet-bag men. They had deceived him and would deceive whoever trusted them. Under their promises, he followed them about the country until a carpet-bag man snatched his watch from him and he was never able to recover it. War had brought these men to the top; peace and quiet would put them at the bottom again, where they belonged. They were aware of it, and hence they kept up the cry of discord and war, and if they don't make mischief and war between the two races, they will be disappointed and not able to hold the public offices which they now disgrace. John closed his speech by proposing three cheers for Seymour and Blair, which were given with a gusto, and the crowd dispersed.

The 19th. of September and the great mass meeting will long be remembered by those who were present. If Wake county will stand by her own worthy son, Sion H. Rogers, as Orange will do, Deweese will be turned out of Congress, where he sits, to the disgrace of the whole State.

Yours, &c.,
FLAT RIVER.

THE LATE REPUBLICAN PROCESSION IN NEW ORLEANS.

The following correspondence has just been made public:

WASHINGTON, Sept. 12, 1868.

Commanding General, Department of Louisiana, New Orleans:

Brevet Major General Hatch, Assistant Commissioner of the Freedmen's Bureau, reports there is danger of an assault upon a torchlight procession in New Orleans to-night. You will so dispose and employ the troops under your command as to prevent such assault and preserve the peace.—Please acknowledge the receipt of this dispatch.

By Command of GEN. GRANT.
J. C. KELTON, Asst. Adj. Gen.

HDQ'S DEP'T LOUISIANA,

Brevet Brigadier General J. C. Kelton, Assistant Adjutant General United States Army, Washington, D. C.:

Dispatch received. There is no danger, in my opinion, of an assault upon the procession to-night. The danger is the negroes will commence a riot, and the public property may possibly be destroyed. I have made arrangements to protect it, and shall use all of my disposable troops for that purpose. Am I to interfere any further than this? The Governor has not asked for assistance.

ROBERT C. BUCHANAN.
Brevet Major General Commanding.

EAGLE ROCK.—The Yankee paper in this city gives an account of a recent Radical meeting at Eagle Rock, at which "three hundred white men were present,—one hundred of whom enrolled their names as members of the Grant and Colfax club." Now, we are positively assured, upon the most reliable authority, that there were but 23 white men at that meeting—nearly all of whom, probably, were for Seymour and Blair!

THE EVERETT FARCE IN HALIFAX.

Our readers will remember that, a short time ago, we alluded to the efforts of John H. Everett, of Halifax, to create the impression that he had been shot at and otherwise maltreated, and to the fact that he had succeeded, though known to be wholly unprincipled and unreliable, in inducing "Gov." Holden to order "Judge" Watts and the Attorney General to go to Weldon and investigate the case. We compile the following from the Weldon News:

On Friday last a company of NEGRO militia, seventy five in number, arrived at Weldon and camped at the Methodist Church. Of this company, J. H Everett was Captain, with directions from Raleigh to report at Weldon and await orders.

Everett and the Attorney General Coleman arrived at Weldon on Saturday, Coleman having been ordered by "Gov." Holden to investigate the affair. Sheriff Reid was sent for and warrants were issued to arrest a number of white citizens in the neighborhood of Gaston. The Sheriff advised the Attorney General that he needed no military force to arrest the parties, and, at his suggestion, orders were received from Raleigh to disband the armed negro militia force.

On Tuesday, the Court, consisting of three Justices of the Peace, was convened,—Attorney General Coleman, assisted by Adjutant General Fisher, appearing for the State. Dr. E. T. Saunders, W. J. Snead, John Shaborn, Dr. W. W. Clements, Jno. D. Shaw, T. S. Hockaday, R. Lynch, G. C. Bobbitt, Thad. Snow, Sugar Snow, Jno. Snow and J. V. Newsom had been summoned to appear, and all were present, except Thad. Snow and J. V. Newsom, who were prevented by sickness. Jas. A. Faulcon, upon whom the warrant was not served, also appeared.

Gen. Mat. Ransom, and Messrs. E. Conigland, W. H. Day, and Wm. A. Kerr, appeared for the defendants. A large crowd assembled, and [illegible] they were a good deal interested at so much as an exhibition. Twenty four of the thirty witnesses summoned appeared. The prosecutor alleged that the six absent witnesses were the most important to him, upon which the State agreed to dismiss the whole case and discharge the prisoners. The State then demanded that they should be bound over to keep the peace, to which the defendants demurred, upon the ground that such a proceeding would require fresh warrants and a new trial. The Attorney General then asked the defendants to accept service, in order that the question of recognizance might be settled. The defense contended that the prosecutor, having failed to make good his allegations in the case, the Court could not pay any regard to any affidavit he might now make concerning the affair—it would be in violation of general principles, and the Court could not give the case any farther attention at the hands of the prosecutor.

The Attorney General replied that the warrant charged an actual breach of the peace, conspiracy and riot. If the witnesses were not ready to make out these charges, the prosecutor was not estopped from claiming any personal protection from a peace warrant.

Pending this question, the Court declared the defendants discharged from custody, and adjourned the session for the space of an hour, in order that peace warrants might be served upon such persons as Everett might select.

Pursuant to adjournment, the Court reassembled at three o'clock, and the prosecuton, John H. Everett, being called, it was found that he, in company with his wife, had left upon the three o'clock train for Portsmouth, and as the play could not go on without him, the Attorney General declared the whole case discharged!

Remarks were made by several of the counsel regarding the farcical appearance of the affair, when the Court declared itself adjourned.

And thus John H. Everett, the prosecutor in this case, has fled from an investigation of an affair of his own seeking—leaving the community none the worse for his sudden departure, though many regrets were expressed that he did not remain to see his own villainy exposed.

This is a most shameful affair, and places "Gov" Holden in a ridiculous light. He knew, or ought to have known, that Everett was utterly worthless, and ought not to have credited his falsehoods. This is of a piece with the thousand stories told by Radicals of their bad treatment from the Conservatives or "rebels." They are utterly false and are gotten up to keep up excitement and increase the irritation between the respectable whites and the carpet baggers, scallawags and negroes. Why is this? A Governor of a State should be the guardian of the public peace and quiet. So long as he is utterly partizan, political opponents, no matter how worthy and reliable, have no possible chance for justice or fairness. It is hoped that "Gov." Holden will learn something, after a while, as to how shamelessly unreliable many of his special friends are. The Weldon News gives credit to Mr. Coleman for fairness in the above case. Indeed, he must have seen, very soon, that he and the Governor had been shamelessly sold!

RADICALISM.—The Wilson Plaindealer says that two convicts recently broke jail in that place. Instead of making their escape, they made directly for this place, were received in the "Governor's" office, acknowledged their escape from jail, and told a terrible story of bad treatment. They were allowed to depart in peace, to become more expert in carrying out the advice set forth in the Legislative address!

RADICAL OUTRAGE.—A friend in Chapel Hill writes us that the halyards to the Flagpole in that town have been cut and the rope stolen. This was done at night by some Radical villain. It will be necessary to take the pole (which is 101 feet clear of the ground) down, in order to fix it.

HON. ABRAM RENCHER.—If having been recently rumored, in Chatham, that this distinguished gentlemen would support Grant and Colfax, he was addressed by W. T. Gunter, Esq., to ascertain his views in the present great struggle. Mr. G's. letter elicited the following reply:

PITTSBORO, Sept. 20, 1868.

W. T. Gunter, Esq., Haywood:

DEAR SIR:—I am very sorry that any one should believe that I could support the nominees of the Radical party. No one could be more opposed to the principles, as well as the practices, of that party.

You know that my views as to the proper course for the State to take on R construction, and the rights that should be conceded to the colored people, differed very widely from those held by a majority of the Conservative party, but I have held but one opinion as to the Radical party. I believe its success would result in a complete change and subversion of our political institutions, if not in the subversion of civil liberty. Convinced more than ever of the value of Democratic principles to the safety and harmony of our free institutions, I shall support, most cordially, the nominees of the Democratic party, and regret that my age and infirmity does not allow me to take the active part in their support, which, otherwise, I should feel it my duty to do.

With great Respect,
Your Ob't. Servant,
A. RENCHER.

CHEERING FROM THE WEST.—A friend writes us from Franklin, Macon Co., under date of the 19th: "In this Senatorial District, we are moving forward steadily, happily and buoyantly. We are active, gaining daily, and determined to do our whole duty in redeeming the State in November."

HON. W. T. DORTCH.—This distinguished gentleman will address the people of Johnston, at Selma, on Saturday, October 3rd.—the occasion being the regular meeting of the Seymour and Blair Club.

A NUMBER of communications, accounts of meetings, &c., crowded out, to-day. They shall appear just as rapidly as we can find room for them.

SEYMOUR AND BLAIR IN NASH.

Editors Sentinel:—Pursuant to notice, a portion of the voters of Griffin's District, Nash county, assembled at the election precinct, on the 18th. Sept., for the purpose of organizing a Seymour and Blair Club.

The meeting being called to order, on motion of Hon. A. H. Arrington, Capt. S. W. Bartholomew was called to the Chair, and David N. Sills appointed Secretary.

J. M. Stone, Esq., then submitted a Constitution and by-laws, similar to those published in the Sentinel, for the government of the Club; which were unanimously adopted.

The following gentlemen were elected officers: H. G. Leonard, President; Maj. Jno. W. Mitchell, Vice-President; J. M. Stone, Esq., Treasurer; David N. Sills, Secretary; S. W. Bartholomew, Peyton Collins, J. J. Griffin, J. P. Hillard, L. F. Battle, P. Griffin, Gideon Coggin, N. J. Cooper, John Harrison, W. W. Boddie, R. H. Stone, W. H. Wood, C. C. W. Woodard, Tip Battle and Henry Yarborough, Executive Committee. All the white men present, and two colored men, had their names enrolled as members of the Club.

On motion, it was requested that the proceedings of the meeting be published in the Raleigh Sentinel.

On motion, the meeting adjourned.

GOLD HILL, Sept. 21, 1868.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—We beg leave to note, through your columns, the existence of a Democratic and Conservative Club at this place. At our last meeting, which was largely attended by the good citizens of Gold Hill, and vicinity, Ephraim Mauney, Esq., was elected President, (on account of a vacancy,) and was conducted to the Chair by Col. J. C. Snuggs and M. L. Barnhardt, Corresponding Secretary. The President addressed the meeting in his usual manner, setting forth the atrocities of Radicalism, &c., &c. Speeches were made by several other gentlemen of the Club, each having the desired effect.

Resolutions were adopted favoring the nomination of Hon. Francis E. Shober for Congress in the 6th District.

Other business attended to, the meeting adjourned, not with a big swing around negro dance. We hope our Democratic and Conservative friends will assist us in driving back the threatening waves of anarchy and revolution, so that the 3rd of November will bring tidings of joy to the once saddened hearts of our dear "Sunny South."

Old Gold Hill is wide awake, and her people seem to realize the fact, once more, that "there is life in the old land yet."

Cor. Secretary.

Abuse of the Franking Privilege!—J. T. Deweese, M. C.

MACON Co., Sept. 19, 1868.

You know that there are many copies of the laws, now being sent by the Secretary of State, to the members of the General Assembly. They are sent by mail. The postage should be "pre-paid." So I think. But they are all "franked" by Deweese, M. C. How is this, and why is it? What right has Deweese to "frank" matter from the office of the Secretary of State? Has he any? Why does he do it? Is this the solution? Does Deweese "frank" all of Menninger's matter, and then Menninger charge North Carolina for postage he never paid?

Now, sirs, I'll bet high here is a stealing operation on a very small scale. But particles make heaps.

Again, Deweese, while in Washington, "franked" letters he did not write. One of the letters was written by Rev. John R. Ammons of this county. Ammons is a running-nose boy, without ordinary sense, and is Holden's Colonel of "Melish" for Macon county.

Yours, &c.

The Standard's Brutal Attack on the Ladies—Indignation Meeting!

LEXINGTON, N. C., Sept. 23, 1868.

At a meeting of citizens, (irrespective of party,) at Lexington, in the Court House, A. L. Watson, Esq., was called to the Chair, and Mr. L. E. Johnson and Dr. C. M. Payne were chosen Secretaries.

The Chairman stated that the object of the meeting was to express our indignation at an article (entitled "Work,") which appeared in the North Carolina Standard, of Sept. 19th.

Upon motion, the Chairman read the article.

It was moved and carried, that a Committee of six be appointed to draft appropriate resolutions.

Suitable remarks were made by distinguished persons of both parties, after which the Committee read the following resolutions, which were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That we have read, with feelings of horror and indignation, the leading editorial in the North Carolina Standard, of the 19th. inst., headed "Work," and that it is a most infamous libel and gross slander, as well as an insidious, brutal assault on the purity of the female sex of North Carolina and the other Southern States.

Resolved, That silence on our part would be virtually endorsing the said article; therefore, we deem it culpable in any man to remain passive or fail to publicly express his indignation.

Resolved, That we can view the base writer in no other light than that of a vulgar brute and despicable wretch, richly meriting the contempt and detestation of every respectable and virtuous minded person in the State, and that his miserable quasi apology should only serve to sink him still lower in the minds of all thinking people.

Resolved, That, in the opinion of this meeting, the patronage of that newspaper should at once be withdrawn, until it is purged of the author of the article above referred to, and that he be ferreted out, to the end that the public scorn of an outraged people may expel from our midst the mean and loathsome thing that has sought to disgrace and tarnish the fair name and fame of the pure and lovely daughters of North Carolina.

It was moved and carried, that a copy of the above resolutions be sent to the Salem Press, Old North State and Raleigh Sentinel for publication, and that a copy also be sent to the editor of the North Carolina Standard.

C. M. PAYNE,
Secretaries.

CONGRESS.—It must be noted here that there was not, at any time, a quorum of the House present. Had a single Democrat been present to make this point, the whole game of the Radicals would have been broken up, and they could hardly have got a quorum here in season to carry their scheme through. But, no objection being made, the resolution passed without a division, went to the Senate and was concurred in by that body, which had a quorum present.

After this resolve had been passed Mr. Schenck attempted to put through one or two immaterial resolutions, but Mr. Brooks and one or two other Democrats here came in and arrested the proceedings by making the point about the quorum.

Is there not an old proverb about locking a stable door after the horse is stolen? We are reminded of the mode by which one of the most infamous of all the measures of the Radical party passed—that which attempted to wrest from the Supreme Court its jurisdiction in the McCardle case. By the sqinieness of Democrats that bill went through, no one opposing or debating it.

As for to day's work, it is just as well that Congress has placed itself in this defiant and threatening attitude towards the people in respect to their choice of a President. It is very plain that Congress does not mean to allow an untrammelled choice, and it is even more apparent by their coming here, and by the artful machinery they have provided for re-assembling, that they are in doubt and fear as to the result.

Their arrangements will come to naught. If next month the freemen of Pennsylvania shall set their doom upon them, then nothing can save them. Whatever of fraud or violence they may then essay, to set aside the people's verdict, will find a swift and exemplary punishment. Prudence would admonish them to yield to the popular decision; but it is, perhaps, just as well that they should precipitate, by their resistance, the retribution which they have already earned by so much of crime and cruelty.—Nat. Intel., Tuesday.

THE COLORED DEMOCRATIC CLUB AT WILSON, N. C.—We have received from Mr. Joseph P. Johnson, President, and Mr. Buck Powell, Secretary, of the colored Democratic Club, at Wilson, North Carolina, a letter defining the objects and reasons which have induced their organization. These are expressed very well, indeed, but the chief thing that we find to admire is the spirit which marks their address and their action. They have had the wit and the native shrewdness to detect the rapacity, selfishness and inborn scoundrelism of the carpet-baggers—Radical emissaries who have sought to gain their votes, and thereby promote their own private ends. Eschewing the counsels of these creatures, they take their stand along with their white neighbors and friends. Upon the steady good will of these they think their race can better rely than on the interested suggestions of strangers. In this act both the head and the heart concur, and we are very sure time will demonstrate its wisdom. There is no real antagonism between the white and black races of the South which cannot be traced to outside Radical malice. The natural gravitation of the two races, their common interests impel them to a cordial union and reciprocity of good offices. We are glad to know, therefore, that the colored people of the South—breaking loose from the impious slavery of the Loyal Leaguers—are turning in large and daily increasing masses to join those with whom their lot is to be cast for weal or woe, and upon whose good will their own future depends. Those who, like Messrs. Johnson and Powell, organize and lead such associations deserve especial commendation, and if abused by Radicals, as they will be, it will be pretty certainly found that the persons assailing them are men of little or no character, who have selfish ends to promote. Nat. Intel.

THAT'S SO.—The New York World says that if a negro thief happens to be caught in a Southern hen roost, and is punished, or threatened, or even required to evacuate the premises without the desiderated chickens on his shoulder, all the white and black Radicals cry aloud, "insurrection and revolution are threatened! Forty thousand Ku Kluxrs are upon us! Universal massacre is imminent! Call out the militia and the whole regular army of the country! Sound all the trumpets and beat all the drums in the land, and make all other possible noises!"

THE NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION!

THE PLATFORM.

"The Democratic party, in National Convention assembled, reposing its trust in the intelligence, patriotism and discriminating justice of the people, standing upon the Constitution as the foundation and limitation of the powers of the government, and the guaranty of the liberties of the citizen, and recognizing the questions of slavery and secession as having been settled, for all time to come, by the war or the voluntary action of the Southern States in constitutional conventions assembled, and never to be renewed or re-agitated, do, with the return of peace, demand:

First.—Immediate restoration of all the States to their rights in the Union, under the Constitution, and of civil government to the American people.

Second.—Amnesty for all past political offences, and the regulation of the elective franchise in the States by their citizens.

Third.—Payment of the public debt of the United States as rapidly as practicable; all moneys drawn from the people by taxation, except so much as is requisite for the necessities of the Government, economically administered, being honestly applied to such payment, and where the obligations of the government do not expressly state upon their face, or the law under which they were issued does not provide that they shall be paid in coin, they ought in right and in justice, to be paid in the lawful money of the United States.

Fourth.—Equal taxation to every species of property according to its real value, including government bonds and other public securities.

Fifth.—One currency for the government and the people, the laborer and the office-holder, the pensioner and the soldier, the producer and the bond holder.

Sixth.—Economy in the administration of the government; the reduction of the standing army and navy; the abolition of the Freedmen's Bureau (great cheering) and all political instrumentalities designed to secure negro supremacy; simplification of the system and discontinuance of inquisitorial modes of assessing and collecting internal revenue, so that the burden of taxation may be equalized and lessened, the credit of the government and the currency made good; the repeal of all enactments for enrolling the militia into national forces in time of peace; and a tariff for revenue upon foreign imports, and such equal taxation under the internal revenue laws as will afford incidental protection to domestic manufactures, and as will, without impairing the revenue, impose the least burden upon and best promote and encourage the great industrial interests of the country.

Seventh.—Reform of abuses in the Administration, the expulsion of corrupt men from office, the abrogation of useless offices, the restoration of rightful authority to and the independence of the executive and judicial departments of the government, the subordination of the military to the civil power, to the end that the usurpations of Congress and the despotism of the sword may cease.

Eighth.—Equal rights and protection for naturalized and native born citizens at home and abroad; the assertion of American nationality which shall command the respect of foreign powers, and furnish an example and encouragement to people struggling for national integrity, constitutional liberty and individual rights; and the maintenance of naturalized citizens against the absolute doctrine of immutable allegiance and the claim of foreign powers to punish them for alleged crime committed beyond their jurisdiction.

In demanding these measures and reforms we arraign the Radical party for its disregard of right, and the unparalleled oppression and tyranny which have marked its career. After the most solemn and unanimous pledge of both Houses of Congress to prosecute the war exclusively for the maintenance of the government and the preservation of the Union under the Constitution, it has repeatedly violated that most sacred pledge under which alone was rallied that noble volunteer army which carried our flag to victory.

Instead of restoring the Union, it has, so far as is in its power, dissolved it, and subjected ten States, in time of profound peace, to military despotism and negro supremacy.

It has nullified there the right of trial by jury; it has abolished the habeas corpus, that most sacred writ of liberty; it has overthrown the freedom of speech and the press; it has substituted arbitrary seizures and arrests, and military trials and secret star chamber inquisitions for the constitutional tribunals; it has disregarded in time of peace the right of the people to be free from searches and seizures; it has entered the post and telegraph offices and even the private rooms of individuals, and seized their private papers and letters without any specific charge or notice of affidavit, as required by the organic law; it has converted the American capitol into a hostile; it has established a system of spies and official espionage, to which no constitutional monarchy of Europe would dare to resort; it has abolished the right of appeal on important constitutional questions to the supreme judicial tribunal, and threatens to curtail or destroy its original jurisdiction, which is irrevocably vested by the Constitution, while the learned Chief Justice has been subjected to the most atrocious calumnies merely because he would not prostitute his high office to the support of the false and partizan charges preferred against the President. Its corruption and extravagance have exceeded anything known in history, and by its frauds and monopolies, it has nearly doubled the burden of the debt created by the war. It has stripped the President of his constitutional power of appointment, even of his own Cabinet. Under its repeated assaults the pillars of government are rocking on their base, and should it succeed in November next and inaugurate its President, we will meet, as a subjected and conquered people, amid the ruins of liberty and the scattered fragments of the Constitution; and we do declare and resolve that ever since the people of the United States threw off all subjection to the British Crown, the privilege and trust of suffrage have belonged to the several States, and have been granted, regulated and controlled exclusively by the political power of each State respectively, and that any attempt by Congress, on any pretext whatever, to deprive any State of this right or to interfere with its exercise, is a flagrant usurpation of power which can find no warrant in the Constitution; and if sanctioned by the people will subvert our form of government, and can only end in a single centralized and consolidated government, in which the separate existence of the States will be entirely absorbed, and an unqualified despotism be established in place of a federal union of co-equal States; and that we regard the reconstruction acts (so called) of Congress as usurpations, and unconstitutional, revolutionary and void; that our soldiers, who carried the flag of our country to victory against a most gallant and determined foe must ever be gratefully remembered, and all the guarantees given in their favor must be faithfully carried into execution.

That the public lands should be distributed as widely as possible among the people and should be disposed of either under the pre-emption or homestead laws, and sold in reasonable quantities, and to none but actual occupants, at the minimum price established by the government. When grants of the public lands may be allowed necessary for the encouragement of important public improvements, the proceeds of the sale of such lands, and not the lands themselves, should be so applied.

That the President of the United States, Andrew Johnson (applause,) in exercising the power of his high office in resisting the aggressions of Congress upon the constitutional rights of the States and the people, is entitled to the gratitude of the whole American people, and in behalf of the Democratic party we tender him our thanks for his patriotic efforts in that regard."

No extra charge for Females. No charge for Medical Examinat'n, Policies or stamps.

NEW YORK.

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

NEW YORK.

Office, No. 39, Liberty Street.

The Original Joint Stock Life Insurance Company in the United States.

The business of this Company is EXCLUSIVELY confined to the insurance of first-class healthy lives.

THE DISTINCTIVE FEATURE of the Stock system of Life Insurance, as opposed to the MUTUAL, is a low rate of premium for a stated sum assured, which is IMMEDIATE, SECURED, and CERTAIN; in lieu of a high rate of premium for a promised dividend which is DISTANT, CONTINGENT, and UNCERTAIN; this so-called dividend being merely a return of a portion of the excessive and unnecessary premium charged in the first instance.

ILLUSTRATION.

Suppose that an individual aged thirty desires to devote $200 a year for the purpose of effecting an insurance on his life; this amount will immediately secure him in the "Universal" the sum of $11,751, payable on his decease. This sum, paid to a Company charging the ordinary mutual rates, would secure him the sum of $8,474.

The difference between those sums ($3,277) is exactly the same as an immediate bonus or addition to the policy to be paid by the former office to the holder of the policy in case of the early death of the insured. It is true that if the insured, in an office charging high rates, live long enough, and have his periodical dividends added to his policy, the sum may equal or surpass that above named; but it must not be forgotten that the chance of early death is the very thing the applicant desires to insure against, and consequently the greater the sum immediately secured, contingent on this event, the greater the advantage to the policy-holder.

To illustrate the importance to the policy-holder of low premiums in more general terms, it may be stated that by a reduction of twenty-five per cent in the rate of premium, the same amount of money will secure a policy thirty-three and one-third per cent greater, and likewise that a reduction of twenty-five per cent. in the rate of premium is precisely equivalent to an annual cash dividend of thirty three and one-third per cent., payable in advance, or to a dividend of forty-five per cent, payable at the end of five years.

By the Stock plan the full cash effect of the premium is immediately secured to the insured, the Company taxing all the risk. By the Mutual plan, the full value in insurance of the premium paid is not secured to the policy-holder, who takes a portion of the risk himself.

Rates to Secure $1,000 at Death.

AGE.	Ordinary Life Rate.	Ten Payments Rate	AGE.	Ordinary Life Rate.	Ten Payments Rate

Policies issued at rates less than those charged by Mutual Companies, guaranteeing a reduction of fifty per cent of the premium after the third annual payment.

The undersigned having been appointed General Agents for the States of North and South Carolina, for the above STERLING Company, desire Agents in all the principal towns and sections in said States.
